World's Fair Guessing Contest:

Will begin Saturday morning, March 26, and close at night, June 30, 1904, and the person guessing nearest the number of dozen eggs we buy on and between these dates, we will furnish a free Iron Mountain Railroad ticket from Jackson to St. Louis and return, and allow said person $5.00 a day for five days' expenses while at the fair.

Second nearest will be furnished a free Iron Mountain Railroad ticket from Jackson to St. Louis and return and $1.00 a day for five days' expenses.

Third nearest will receive a free Iron Mountain Railroad ticket from Jackson to St. Louis and return.

Fourth nearest will receive $3.00 worth of Merchandise at our store.

Fifth nearest will receive $2.00 worth of merchandise at our store.

RULES: Each person will be allowed one guess for each fifty cents' worth of goods purchased at our store. Thomas McFarland will keep a correct account of eggs bought, and no information will be given out. Guesses will be placed in a box and not opened until July 1, when they will be examined by Alvin Boss and Thomas McFarland and prizes awarded. Winning numbers will be published twenty days and if no one claims same the next nearest will receive it. Those winning trips to the fair can visit the fair any time after July 20. No person will receive a prize until all are claimed. In case of a tie the prize will be divided equally. Anyone winning can transfer or sell same to anyone else if they chose. No prizes will be paid only as stated. No person connected with the store or their families will be allowed to guess. For the benefit of those wishing to guess will state that during the week beginning March 7 and ending March 12, 1904, we bought 2121 dozen eggs.
